Conditions of Entry

Entries must be original, unpublished works, not longer than 1000 words.

Entries will close on 30th November 2015.

The competition will be open to everyone, and will be judged by a panel representing the Warrandyte Diary and the Warrandyte Library.

The entries submitted by email must be a Word document.

There will be no restrictions on topic, however the entry must be suitable for un-edited publication in the Warrandyte Diary and on the Diary website.

The winner will be announced at the Warrandyte Festival Grand Read Event in March 2016 and the winner may be given the opportunity to present their material at the Event.

Successful entries may be published in the Warrandyte Dairy, and the winner will receive prizes in the form of book tokens from major bookshops.
