

Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin
Editorial guidelines for 2020 Local Election registered Candidates

The Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin will publish content in relation to the Local Election 2020 for the municipalities of Manningham and Nilumbik in the September, October and November editions of the Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin

Candidate Statement

Registered Candidates will be encouraged to submit a 300-word statement outlining their campaign, with an accompanying headshot (at least 6cm x 6cm at 300dpi) for publication in the October Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin.

This statement must be no more than 300 words and cannot contain subheadings or bullet points.

In addition to the 300 words, candidates must also supply an authorisation statement.

Articles/letters

Registered Candidates may also submit articles and letters to the Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin for publication. This material must include an authorisation statement and will also be subject to publication and editing at the discretion of the Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin Editors.

Advertisement

Registered Candidates may also place a paid advertisement in the Warrandyte Diary and WD Bulletin. Advertisements must contain the word "ADVERTISEMENT" in at least 10pt in or above the headline and will be placed in the edition once compliance of this statutory requirement is met and payment has been received.

Scope

Subject to levels of engagement Warrandyte Diary publications may also cover wards in bordering municipalities.

Supplied editorial content may also appear on Warrandyte Diary website and social media platforms.

Editorial, advertising and deadline enquiries:

Warrandyte Diary: info@warrandytediary.com.au

WD Bulletin: bulletin@warrandytediary.com.au